

SEX OR KIDNAPPING OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE

SPECIAL ASSAULT UNIT SEX AND KIDNAPPING OFFENDER REGISTRATION DETAIL

Bulletin # : 05-177

Census tract: 92

PREPARED BY DET. ROBERT A. SHILLING

DATE: 7/7/2005

The Seattle Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550, the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, and the US Supreme Court decision in Connecticut Dept. of Public Safety v. Doe (2003) which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex or kidnapping offenders release when the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex or kidnapping offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level, which reflects the potential to re-offend.

This sex or kidnapping offender has served the sentence imposed on him by the courts and has advised the King County Department of Public Safety that he will be living in the location below. HE IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME. THIS NOTIFICATION IS NOT INTENDED TO INCREASE FEAR; RATHER, IT IS OUR BELIEF THAT AN INFORMED PUBLIC IS A SAFER PUBLIC.

The Seattle Police Department has no legal authority to direct where a sex or kidnapping offender may or may not live. Unless court ordered restrictions exist, this offender is constitutionally free to live wherever he chooses.

Sex and kidnapping offenders have always lived in our communities; but it wasn't until passage of the Community Protection Act of 1990 (which mandates sex and kidnapping offender registration) that law enforcement even knew where they were living. In many cases, law enforcement is now able to share that information with you. Citizen abuse of this information to threaten, intimidate or harass registered sex or kidnapping offenders will not be tolerated. Further, such abuse could potentially end law enforcement's ability to do community notifications. We believe the only person who wins if community notification ends is the sex or kidnapping offender, since they derive their power through secrecy.

Parker, Ozell B. B M 9/21/66
Age: 38

5'9", 220 pounds, black hair, brown eyes.
Tattoo: "Virgo" on upper right arm
3" scar on his left cheek

Ozell Parker was released from prison in March of 2002, after completing his sentence for Theft in the Second Degree – Domestic Violence. The victim in this case was an ex-girlfriend. In 1987, Parker was convicted of Indecent Liberties with Forcible Compulsion. The adult, female, victim was standing at a bus stop on Rainier Ave. She did not know Parker. Parker and an accomplice approached her and began speaking in an obscene manner. Parker backed her into a corner and began touching her. The victim fought Parker and burned him in the face with a cigarette. Parker and his accomplice removed the victim's blouse and bra and told her they were going to rape her. When a bus pulled up, Parker and his accomplice ran off with the victim's purse. They were subsequently apprehended.

(Next page)

Additional sex or kidnapping offender information:

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 16,373 sex or kidnapping offenders who have registered as required (since 2/28/90) and are living in Washington State. 3,611 of these are registered to King County addresses. 1,249 are registered to addresses within the city limits of Seattle. State-wide there are an additional 3,049 sex or kidnapping offenders who are required to register and have not and are actively being pursued by law enforcement.

In 1993, Parker was convicted of Unlawful Imprisonment with Sexual Motivation. The victim in this case was in her vehicle and stopped at an intersection. Parker jumped into her car and demanded she drive him to various locations in the Seattle area. At one point, Parker made her drive to a park by Lake Washington. There he tore the victim's blouse off her and demanded sex. After fondling the victim, Parker made her drive again. When they stopped, Parker grabbed the victim's keys, physically assaulted her and fled. He was apprehended a short time later.

In 1989, Parker was convicted of Assault 2 with a Deadly Weapon. The victim in this case was an adult female who was waiting for some friends at a deli. Parker struck up a conversation with the victim and offered to give her a ride to Maple Valley where she lived. The victim agreed. The victim walked with Parker to his home to get his car keys. Once inside his home, Parker demanded sex. The victim refused and a struggle ensued. The victim got away several times but was caught. Parker threatened the victim with a shovel. Police arrived due to neighbors calling about a woman screaming and Parker was arrested.

Parker has refused to participate in sexual deviancy treatment during all of his incarcerations. He was referred to the King County Prosecutor's Office for review for civil commitment as a sexually violent predator. Prosecution was declined.

Parker has a long history of drug and alcohol abuse. He was under the influence of alcohol when he committed his Theft in the Second Degree. Parker is no longer under the supervision of Department of Corrections. He has no other release conditions other than sex offender registration. Parker has registered as a sex offender as required by law. He is living as "homeless" in the area of 1st Ave S. and S. Washington St.

Additional sex or kidnapping offender information:

As of the date of this bulletin, there are 16,373 sex or kidnapping offenders who have registered as required (since 2/28/90) and are living in Washington State. 3,611 of these are registered to King County addresses. 1,249 are registered to addresses within the city limits of Seattle. State-wide there are an additional 3,049 sex or kidnapping offenders who are required to register and have not and are actively being pursued by law enforcement.